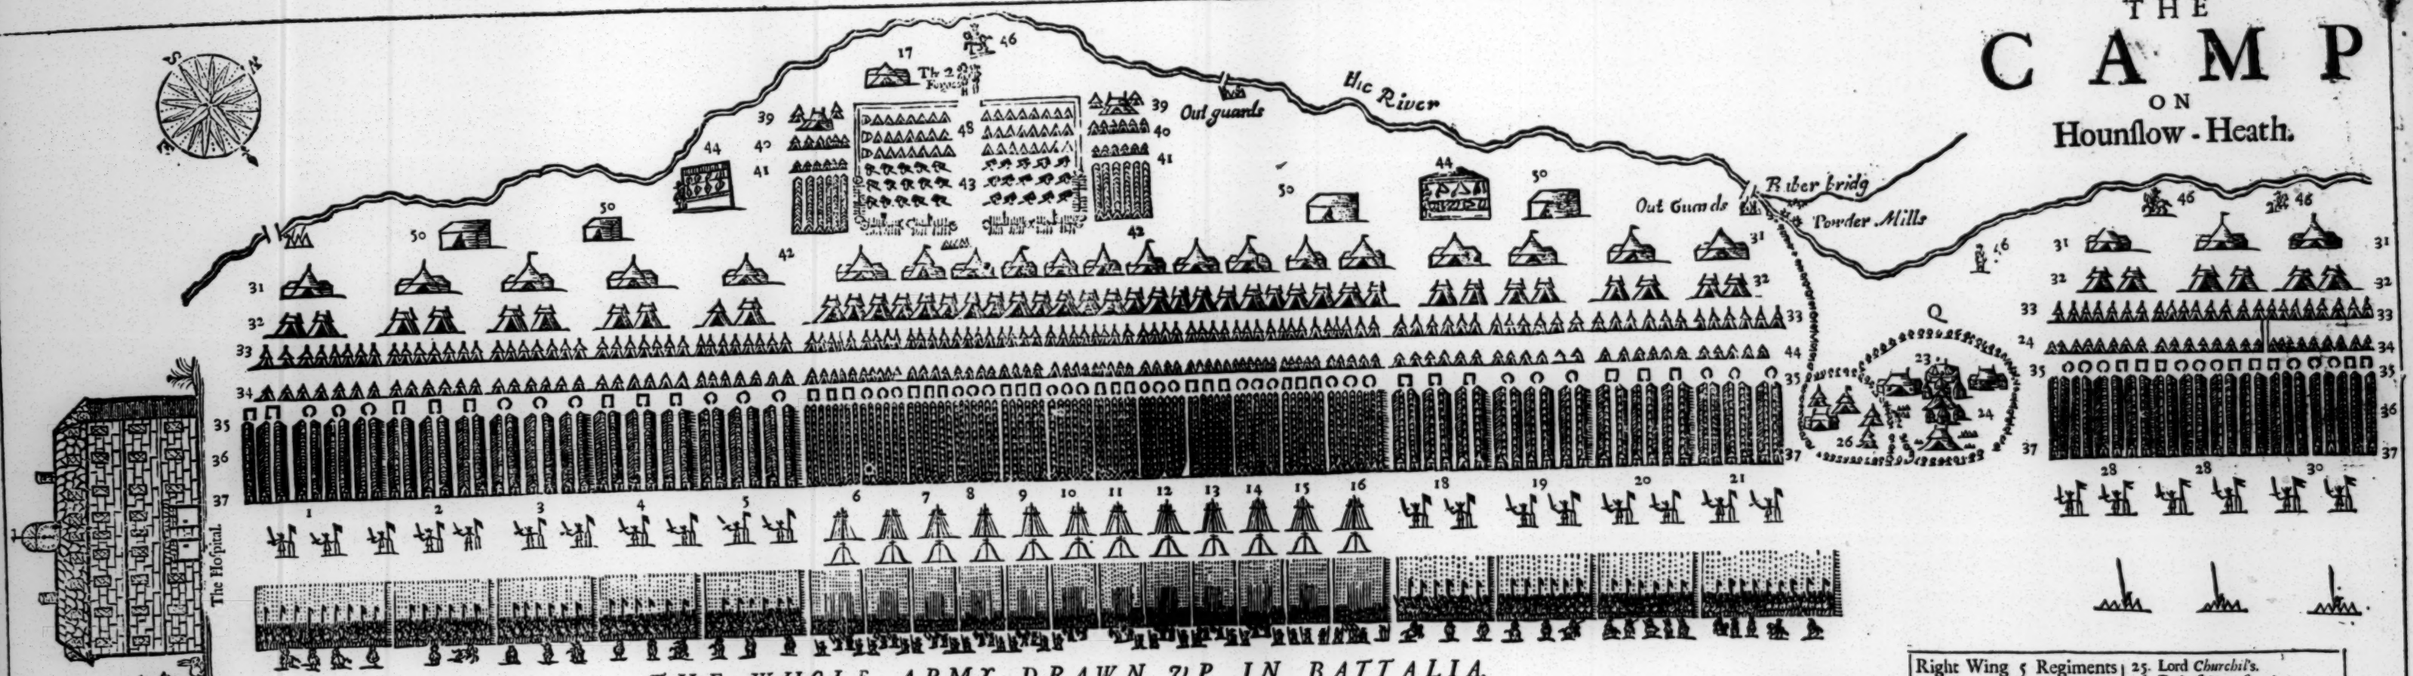
THE CAMP ON Hounslow-Heath.



Right Wing 5 Regiments of Horse.		25. Lord Churchil's.
1. Earl of Oxford's	9 Troops	26. Earl of Feversham's
2. Major Gen. Worden.	6	27. Earl of Arran's.
3. Lord Lumly.	6	On the Left are three Regiments of Dragoons
4. Earl of Shrewsbury.	6	28. Duke of Somerset.	8 Tro.
5. Earl of Peterborough.	6	29. Colonel Bartlet's.	8
The Foot Guards.		30. Lord Cornbury's.	8
6. The King's Bat. 12 Com. Duke of Grafton Col.		Officers Tents in the Reer of the Soldiers.
7. Earl of Craven's.	6	31. Colonels.
8. Colonel Douglas's	6	32. Lieut. Colonels and Major.
9. Sir, Carles Littleton.	10	33. Captains.
10. Colonel Oglethorp's	10	34. Lieuten Corners, and Ensigns.
11. Earl of Huntingdon.	10	35. Soldiers Kitchings.
12. Earl of Litchfield's.	10	36. Soldiers Tents.
13. Marquess of Worcester.	10	37. Quartermasters and Serjeants Tents in the Front.
14. Earl of Bath.	10	38. Lord Dartmouth's Tents on the Reer.
15. Colonel Kirk's.	10	39. Lieutenant Col. and Major.
16. Lord Dunbarton's.	11	40. Capeains.
17. Lord Dartmouth's Fuzaliers in the Reer.	10	41. Lieutenants and Quartrma.
Four Regiments of Horse on the Left.		42. Fuzaliers Tents, and Serjeants in the line with the Fuzaliers.
18. Earl of Plimouth's.	6 Tro.	43. The Carriages with Ammuni.
19. Earl of Scarsdale's	6	44. a Butcher, and a Poulterer.
20. Earl of Arran's.	6	45. Out-Guards.
21. Sir John Lanier's.	6	46. Provors 60.
His Majesties Quarters.		45. Montroses 27.
22. His Tent.		48. Gunners 54.
23. His Chappel.		49. Miners 40.
24. Lord Dunbarton's.		50. Sutlers Tents.

THE ROYAL ENCAMPMENT OF HIS Majesties Forces ON HOUNSLOW-HEATH. WHEREIN

It contained the several Exercisings, Marchings, Facings Detachments, and Firings.

ON Tuesday the 25*th.* of May 1686. The Foot came to Hounslow-Heath, in the County of Middlesex, about 12 Miles from London, in order to be Encamped, and having the Ground set out for the setting up their Tents, and on Thursday and Friday, the 24*th.* and 25*th.* days of June, the Horse came all into the Camp, then the Camp was full, which consisted of twenty five Regiments, the Lord Dunbarton and the Earl of Feversham, Lieutenant Generals, and continued till Friday the 5*th* of August following.

The distances of the Troops of each Regiment as they are Encamped on the Heath is 24 Paces, and between the Regiments they are 36 Paces; each Regiment contains six Troops, which are divided into two Squadrons, each Squadron into 3 Files, except the Lord of Oxford's and Sir John Lauers, which have 9 Troops in each Regiment, which are 8 Paces distant from each other. The distance of the Foot Companies one from another are about 4 Paces in the Front, and 12 Tents in File, two Foot between every Tent; the Regiments are the same distance with the Horse: The number of Regiments on the Right Wing, are 5. The number of Regiments in the Battallions are 12 and in the Left Wing of the Horse are 4 Regiments, which is in length 2583 Paces. from thence to the Kings Tents is 475 Paces, and from thence to the Dragoons is 693 Paces the Total is 3651 Paces, which is three Miles and a quarter in length; the Lord Darthmouth in the Reer by the Kings Battalions: The Streets between the Soldiers Tents are called Draeques.

The Kitchings for the Soldiers are in the Rear, 5 Paces from the Soldiers Tents, the Lieutenants is 15 Paces from the Kitchings, the Captains 20 Paces from the Lieutenants, the Cellonels and the Majors are 30 Paces, the Sutlers are 40 Paces, in the Rear of all.

On Monday the 28*th.* of June, His Majesty came to the Camp to see the Army, and in the Afternoon they were Drawn up in Battalia, two Regiments of Dragoons on the Right, and one on the Left Wing Facing one another, and the Lord Dartmouth's Fuzaliers in the Front of all the Army, behind the Field pieces; whereupon, Order was given to the Fuzaliers to Fire, then the Great Guns. Fired in Number 27; then the Dragoons on the Right Wing Fired, and so through the whole Army: then the Fuzaliers Fired a second time then the Great Guns, so they Fired for three Rounds together in that manner.

On Wednesday the 30*th.* of June, was the general Rendezvouz, where the King and Queen was in a Scaffold. erected for that purpose, the Army being drawn up in Battalia, as before. then the Great Guns Fired first, then the Lord Darthmouth's Fuziliers, and so the whole Army Fired for three rounds together after that, the Army Marched by the King's Scaffold, First the two Regiments of Dragoons, then the King's Guards, Led by the Earl of Feversham, after that five Regiments of Horse, then 12 Regiments of Foot, then 4 Regiments of Horse, and the Lord of Oxford in the Reer, which was the second Post of Honour.

Of the Exercise of Horse.

DRaw your Swords.
Put your Swords into your Bridle Hands.
Lay your Hands upon your Pistols.
Draw your Pistols.
Cock your Pistols.
Present.
Give Fire.
Return your Pistols.
Lay your Hands on your Carbines.
Advance your Carbines.
Cock your Carbines
Present your Carbines.
Give Fire.
Let fall your Carbines.
Take your Swords from your Bridle-Hands.
Return your Swords.
March.

Exercise of the Musquets and Pikes

SHoulder your Musquets.
Musqueteers make Ready.
Advance your Pikes,
Charge to the Front.
To the Right.
To the Right.
To the Right.
To the Right.
To the Right about.
To the Left about as you were
To the Left.
To the Left.
To the Left.
To the Left.
To the Left about.
To the Right about as you were.
Recover your Arms.
Shoulder your Musquets.
Order your Arms.
Pikes to your Inside Order.
Lay down your Arms.
Quit your Arms.
Face all to the Right about.
March clear of your Arms.
To the Left about.
March to your Arms.
Handle your Arms.
Order your Arms.
Pikes to your outside Order.
Poise your Musquets.
Advance your Pikes.
Shoulder all.
March.

Exercise of the Dragoons, either on Horse-back or a Foot.

LInk your Horses.
Handle your Pistols.
Place your Pistols under your Girdles.
Dismount your Horses.
Six outside Men of both Right and Left of every Rank continue Mounted, to take care of the Horses.
March clear of your Horses.
And Shoulder your Musquets
Having commanded Silence
Dragoons have a care.
Lay your Right Hand on your Musquet.
Poise your Musquet.
Rest your Musquet.
Guard your Musquet.
Cock your Musquet.
Present.
Give Fire.
Recover your Musquet.
Cast about to the Right.
Handle your Bayonets.
Put it into the Muzzle of your Musquet.
Poise your Musquet.
Guard your Musquet.
Charge Advancing.
March.
To the Right. } Charge.
To the Right. }
To the Right. }
To the Right. }
To the Right About. Charge.
To the Left about, Charge.
To the Left, } Charge.
To the Left. }
To the Left, }
To the Left, }
March.

Tuesday July the 6*th.* in the Evening the Army was divided into two Bodies, and drew off to the Right over the River by the Hospital, and the other to the Left over the River towards the Powder Mills, coming forwards one towards another, were the Hedges was Lined with the Dragoons, who fell a Firing upon them in the Line, and forced them to Retreat, and afterwards Rallying again kept Firing at one another for two Hour.

Thursday July the 22*d.* In the Evening the Army drew up in Battalia, but in a little time afterwards Orders was given to every Regiment of Foot to open to the Right and Left, which was done, then drew a Regiment of Horse between every Regiment of Foot, when so done, a Preparative was Beaten through the whole Army, to give Notice to the Great Guns, afterwards a March was Beaten through the Army, then two Preparatives was beaten to give further Notice to the Great Guns for to Fire, which was 27 afterwards from the Right Wing they Fired, so though the whole Army, then a preparative was Beat between every Firing to give further Notice to the Great Guns for to make ready and Fire, which they did for three rounds together.

On Monday the 26*th.* of July in the Evening the Earl of Feversham came into the Field and ordered the Foot for to stand to their Arms, afterwards they Marched a little way down the Heath upon the Right, then drew up into a half-Moon, then gave a great Volley through the whole Body of Foot, and afterwards Fired for three quarters of an Hour, to the Admiration of all the Spectators.

Tuesday the 27*th* of July, in the Evening His Majesty came to the Camp, and ordered the Foot to be drawn up into Battalia, then drew them down upon the Right, below the Scaffold, where the King and Queen and the Nobility sat to View them: The Foot was drawn up into a half Moon and an Enfigne standing before the Scaffold, then the Great Guns Fired, in Number 27 after that, began to Exercise them, the Ensign lowring his Colours, then all the Drums Beat as if it was the Word of Command, when so done, then all the Foot kept Firing for half an Hour together.

Thursday July the 29*th.* in the Evening about six a Clock the Army was divided into two Bodies, one towards the Right and the other to the Left of the Kings Scaffold, the Foot in the Front and the Horse in the Reer, and two Great Guns between every Battalion, Four in all the Dragoons on the Right and Left Wings, then the Great Guns Fired six times together, and both Foot and Horse continued Firing at each other for above half an Hour.

Some distance from the Right of the Tents is erected an Hospital Built with Brick, 120 Foot long, and 20 Foot Broad, and 9 Beds, and 6 Wards, viz.

The King's	Ward.	Earl of Feversham's	Ward.
The Queens		Lord Churchill's
Duke of Grafton's		Earl of Craven's

The Bake-house that is Built to Bake Bread for the Army, hath 5 Ovens, and 3 of them in Use, each of them Bakes six Batches a Day, each Batch to contain 300 Loaves in each Oven, the Bake-house is 40 Foot broad, and 70 Foot Long; there is 14 Men at Work in it every Day.

The Barn that is Built for the use of the Army, is 150 Foot long, and there is three Grannaries in it, one for Oates, one for Hay, and another for Straw.

This may be Printed R. P.

LONDON, Printed by George Croom, at the Blue-Ball in Thames-street, near Baynard's Castle. 1686.